

Notice for Consular Service Seekers from New South Wales and Queensland

Please be informed that a permanent office, Consulate General (CG) of Bangladesh, in Sydney has been working since September 2019 with the consular jurisdiction of New South Wales & Queensland. The CG in Sydney has been providing consular services that include visa, No Visa Required (NVR), Birth Registration (BRN), Power of Attorney, police clearance, driving licence verification, attestation/endorsement of documents, Travel Permit (TP) for service seekers living in New South Wales and Queensland. Please find below the address and contact details of the CG in Sydney:

Address:

Consulate General of Bangladesh
Suite-2, Level-1, 189 Kent Street
Sydney, NSW 2000

Telephone & Fax

+61-2-8326 9777 (P)
+61-2-9249 9108 (fax)

Email

consular.sydney@mofa.gov.bd (passport, visa & other consular matter);
mission.sydney@mofa.gov.bd (any other issues).

All service seekers living in New South Wales and Queensland are requested to approach the CG in Sydney for consular services. If anyone from this jurisdiction seeks any consular services from the High Commission in Canberra, the request will not be considered and the payment made will be forfeited.

Machine Readable Passport (MRP) will continue to be processed by the High Commission in Canberra regardless of jurisdiction in Australia.

16/09/21